

What is Settlers' Camp About?

The camp is focused on introducing children to the life and times of our ancestors through encouraging them to participate in pioneer activities and chores. The goal of this program is to promote local history and create an exciting atmosphere where children can experience a hands-on approach to learning about their history. Children are able to participate in various activities including arts and crafts, hands on activities such as baking bread and butter making, demonstrations such as trapping, and more!

By the end of the week, children will have experienced a brief glimpse of 19th century life, as well as activities and processes that were considered 'everyday' 100+ years ago, but are potentially obsolete today. Children will be able to sample and take home the crafts and goodies that they assist in creating.
